

ACTIVITY SHEET 5.1 - INTERESTING WRITING

VERSION 1	VERSION 2
Australia's climate in January January is summer in Australia but its climate can vary due to its size. Melbourne's hot weather can be accompanied by a north wind. Cool changes can occur at the end of hot spells. Brisbane can have rain and storms during summer. In the far north of Queensland, the rains bring humid weather. Sydney is hot and can be prone to heatwaves. It can at times get winds from the desert, which are dry and hot. January is the hottest month in Canberra and its rainfall is affected by thunderstorm activity. Summer days in Newcastle average around 25.6 °C.	Australia's climate in January January is summer in Australia but its climate can vary widely due to its size. In Melbourne hot and dry weather can be accompanied by a strong, unpleasant north wind. Cool changes can occur abruptly at the end of hot spells. In Brisbane it can rain heavily and its summer storms can be spectacular. In the far north of Queensland, the monsoonal rains bring tropical downpours and humid weather. Sydney is mostly warm to hot and can be prone to heatwaves. It can at times get extremely blustery winds from the desert, which are dry and hot. January is the hottest month in Canberra and its rainfall is affected by thunderstorm activity. Summer days in Newcastle are balmy, averaging around 25.6 °C.

LIST ADJECTIVES AND THE NOUNS THEY ARE DESCRIBING

LIST ADVERBS AND THE VERBS THEY ARE DESCRIBING
